AARON WILLIAM POLK,)

Defendants.)

Defendant Polk has moved to continue the pretrial motion deadline currently set for June 25, 2010. (Filing No. 31). Defense counsel explains he needs additional time to review extensive discovery materials and confer with the defendant. Based on the showing set forth in the defendant's motion, the court finds the motion should be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) The defendant's unopposed motion to continue, (filing no.31), is granted and the defendant's pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before July 22, 2010.
- The ends of justice will be served by granting defendant's motion to continue the pretrial motion deadline, and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between June 16, 2010 and July 22, 2010, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, for the reason that the parties require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, the novelty and complexity of the case, and the fact that the failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).
- 3) The trial of this case remains set to commence on August 2, 2010 before Judge Richard G. Kopf.
